stressed the need for safety, fervently requesting everyone to stay home and to always wear a mask for protection.

Cultural Performances: The atmosphere buzzed with enthusiasm as students stepped forward, their performances a heartfelt homage to their guiding lights. The opening act of RERF's Teachers' Day celebration in 2020 set the tone, encapsulating both the tradition and the reverence associated with the day. Here's a glimpse into the evening's diverse array of showcases:

The program was adorned with evocative recitations, penned by Rabindranath Tagore: "Mrityunjay", an ode emphasizing the victory over death, "Jhawrer Diney", capturing the essence of a stormy day, and "Mrityu" and "Jhor" as separate poems, each offering deep reflections on life's transient nature and the inevitable.

This was followed by heartwarming renditions of Tagore's songs - the evocative "Bipode more rokkha koro" and the serene "Aji tor mora gange". As a beacon of hope in these gloomy times, the event concluded with the universally uplifting song, "We Shall Overcome", which resonated deeply with everyone, reinforcing our collective resolve to navigate through this pandemic and emerge stronger.

It was a reminder that, regardless of the challenges, the flame of knowledge and respect for our educators will never dim. The event underscored the idea that even in the face of adversity, the bonds of the academic community remain unbreakable.
