Report of “Teachers' Day Celebration at Regent Education and Research Foundation (2021)”

Title: Teachers' Day Celebration at Regent Education and Research Foundation (RERF)

Date: 5th September 2021

Time: 2:00 PM

Venue: Online (Google Meet)

Introduction

The pandemic has compelled us to adapt, to embrace technology, and to find new ways of connecting and celebrating. In these challenging times, when in-person events had to take a backseat due to the effects of COVID-19, RERF rose to the occasion. The institution ensured that the spirit and tradition of celebrating Teachers' Day were unfettered. Through the wonders of technology, the students and faculty transcended physical boundaries and united on a virtual platform, ensuring that the essence of this revered day shone brightly in a digital realm.

Attendees:

The celebration witnessed an impressive participation that included:

- The Chief Guest: Dr. Rajorshi Bandoadhaya
- Members of the Cultural Committee
- Faculty members of RERF
- Students from various departments

Inaugural Session:

The program was kickstarted with an evocative address from the Hon'ble Principal of RERF. He shed light on the history and significance of Teachers' Day, accentuating the monumental role of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan and the universal respect and reverence for educators around the globe. His articulate words served as the ideal prologue for the cultural showcase that followed.

Cultural Performances: The atmosphere buzzed with enthusiasm as students stepped forward, their performances a heartfelt homage to their guiding lights. The opening act of RERF's Teachers' Day celebration in 2021 set the tone, encapsulating both the tradition and the reverence associated with the day. Here's a glimpse into the evening's diverse array of showcases:

- Singing: Music knows no boundaries, and this was exemplified by the participants who rendered mellifluous renditions of Rabindranath Tagore's timeless classics. The air virtually resonated with songs like "Tumi Robe Nirobe", "Amaro Porano Jaha Chay", "Jodi Tor Dak Shune Keu Na Ase", and "Ekla Cholo Re", each song a testament to Tagore's unparalleled genius.

- Dancing: The screen became a canvas as dancers painted vivid pictures with their movements, capturing the essence of Rabindra Nritya. As they swayed to the tunes of "Phule Phule Dhole Dhole" and "Aji Bijon Ghore", they evoked the spiritual and aesthetic ethos of Tagore's vision.

- Recitation: Poetry soared as attendees were treated to recitations of Tagore's works that mirrored the day's theme of reverence towards educators. "Akhon Ghumie Porbe Na" and "Banglar Mati Banglar Jol" served as poignant reminders of the profound influence teachers wield in shaping minds and futures.

Conclusion:

In these unprecedented times, the celebration was a testimony to the indomitable spirit of education and the timeless bond between teachers and students. No pandemic can quench the thirst for knowledge or dampen the spirit of celebration; RERF's virtual Teachers' Day was proof of that.
